Poem 1

Unknown Origin

'I bargained with Life for a penny,
And Life would pay no more,
However I begged at evening
When I counted my scanty store.

'For Life is a just employer,
He gives you what you ask,
But once you have set the wages,
Why, you must bear the task.

'I worked for a menial's hire,
Only to learn, dismayed,
That any wage I had asked of Life,
Life would have willingly paid.'

Poem 2

Unknown Origin

'If you think you are beaten, you are,
If you think you dare not, you don't
If you like to win, but you think you can't,
It is almost certain you won't.

'If you think you'll lose, you're lost
For out of the world we find,
Success begins with a fellow's will—
It's all in the state of mind.

'If you think you are outclassed, you are,
You've got to think high to rise,
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win a prize.

'Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man,
But soon or late the man who wins
Is the man WHO THINKS HE CAN!'
